

Three Year Olds

Social Studies

- Begins to recognize own physical characteristics and those of others.
- Begins to understand family structures and roles.
- Describes some jobs that people do.
- Shows awareness of group rules.
- Shows beginning awareness of their environment.

Four Year Olds

Social Studies

- Identifies similarities and differences in personal and family characteristics.
- Begins to understand family needs, roles, and relationships.
- Identifies community workers and the services that they provide.
- Begins to be aware of technology and how it affects life.
- Demonstrates awareness of rules.
- Shows awareness of what it means to be a leader.
- Describes the location of things in the environment.
- Shows awareness of the environment.